

FROM THE VICAR

We've plenty happening in our churches in the next few weeks, and I hope very much that you'll join us for some of our services and other events. Everything we do is open to all, and we're delighted to welcome people to join us occasionally rather than often if that suits you better. And if there are things you think we might organize in addition to what's already happening – just tell us!

This month we've our annual look at next year's Gospel – that written by Mark (details are on page 2.) Why not come and dig a bit deeper with us into that earliest record of Jesus' life and teaching? And then the following week we start a series of three discussions about the Reformation (see page 3). It was an era that shaped western civilisation to this day: have you perhaps seen some of the programmes on television recently about it?

There are special times of worship on Remembrance Sunday and then at Advent and on the Sunday before (see page 9), including the first of an exciting new series of services for children and their families (page 5).

We hope each month to have extra times of worship, prayer, fellowship and recreation throughout next year – something different each month. We begin with a Day of Reflection, led by our own inimitable Ron Lloyd, on January 11th – numbers are limited: please let Jane Kidd know if you'd like to attend. The following month we're holding a Quiet Day at the Harnhill Centre (page 3) – we'd love to have good turn-out for that!

Behind the scenes we've been continuing to have a lot of discussion about staffing and funding the churches in our twenty-two church Team. The future looks encouraging for our five churches, but there's a constant need to resource our activities: our western church-members will be getting a letter about this during the month, and the services in CHQ on the 19th will include an explanation of our current financial situation and needs.

We live in uncertain times politically and economically at present – leaving the European Union for example is the biggest upheaval many of us will have experienced in our lifetimes. The Christian gospel contains both encouragement and challenge as we find our way forward as a society, and as we do so the week-by-week call to worship and serve God in the world is something we're privileged to respond to and to share in our five villages.

E-PRAYERS

When people are facing troubles for themselves, their family or friends, many – churchgoers or not – turn to prayer. There is so much evidence of its powers to bring healing and wholeness, although not necessarily a cure, and also of its effectiveness when more people are praying.

From the beginnings of the Christian faith there have been groups that pray for those who ask for this to be done and for other areas of suffering or need.

In these days of the internet and of pressures on time it is hard to get groups together and so a modern alternative is spreading all over the Christian world: E-Prayers, whereby individuals of faith offer to pray in their own homes for those who ask for it. We are gathering a small group together to do just this.

We've set up a confidential email system amongst those willing to pray in this way. So if you would like prayer for yourself or for anyone else, email prayer@cheqs.church with a brief indication of what, or who, you would like prayed for. Feedback about any outcomes would be much welcomed.

We also plan to set up boards in our churches where prayers can be requested; and of course personal requests for prayers are always welcome. If anyone would like to be one of those who pray for others in this way please contact Jane Kidd on jane@colnstaldwyns.com.

LEARNING FROM MARK

Next month we move from Matthew's to Mark's gospel for the majority of our Sunday readings. As in previous years, John Partington will be teaching about the distinctiveness and the themes of the gospel in three sessions (identical – just choose one to come to!): 2.00 pm on Monday 6th in Coln Vicarage, 11.00 am on Tuesday 7th in Ampney Crucis Vicarage, and 7.30 pm on Wednesday 8th in Fairford Community Centre.

HATHEROP CASTLE SCHOOL

November is a wonderful time to be part of a school community. At the beginning of the month the school, including pupils, families and staff, will gather to celebrate Bonfire Night – a night of spectacular fireworks, raging bonfires and juicy sausages. The sounds of ‘Ooh’s and ‘Ahs’ will fill the air as children and adults gather around the bonfire. A week later we will again gather as a community to take part in our Remembrance Evensong, thinking about those men and woman in the armed forces who have died in the service of our country. As we gather in St Nicholas’ Church we will quietly and respectfully remember the fallen. These two occasions will quite rightly differ in tone and mood; however what they have in common is that we will share the occasion as a community.

Since arriving at Hatherop Castle this September, I have been struck by the community feel, not just at the school but also in the local villages and towns. It is vital that children see themselves as part of a larger, supportive community. As I write, I am thinking about all the opportunities that the children have to work and live together; from the Boarding House, to the choir, to the range of sports teams, as well as the way they learn both inside and outside the classroom. However, learning to be part of a community is not always easy and at times it is important to remind children how to live and work successfully with other people.

Each week the children are asked to think about a different value, which will not only help them develop as an individual but also as a member of the wider community. During November, the pupils have been asked to reflect on what it means to be considerate and appreciative. They have also considered what it means to persevere and be resilient. Values such as this are key to building thoughtful, respectful young people who contribute to the wider community.

As we move towards the excitement of Christmas, we hope that we all remember the value of living as part of a wider community.

FAIRFORD AND DISTRICT CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT

Fairford and District Choral Society's winter concert is on Saturday 2 December at St Mary's Church, Fairford. The concert starts at 7.30pm. Wine and soft drinks will be available at the interval. Along with professional soloists, they are performing Vivaldi's Gloria and Haydn's St Nicholas Mass, as well as some shorter pieces.

They will be accompanied by Alison Howell, who will play the magnificent church organ. The concert will be conducted by the society's music director, Marysia Gorska-Saj.

'When we sang Haydn's The Creation this year,' said Carole Noble, the society's Chair, 'it was lovely to read the feedback from a critic, Andrew Wicker. He wrote: "The standard achieved by the choral society was ... impressive" with "great dynamic contrasts". A huge boost for us all. The society enjoys coming together to learn, perform and share beautiful choral music, so we hope the audience really enjoys the programme we have put together for our December concert. Marysia's input is incredible, and we are very lucky to have her as our music director, mentor and conductor.'

Tickets are £15 (£5 for under 18s from Fairford Opticians - 11 High Street, Fairford GL7 4AD, or via www.fairford.org/choralsociety or 01285 713681.

HATHEROP C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL

We have just finished Term 1. Harvest Festival was celebrated at Hatherop Church with all children taking part with songs, Jesus didn't make our sandwiches, prayers, poems and our traditional gifts from the school garden for the harvest table given by our new Reception. It was rounded off with We plough the fields and scatter and a blessing from Revd John Partington.

The Year 6 pupils were treated to a day at Rendcomb College and took part in a Body Percussion Workshop with 160 primary-aged children. Class 1 have been to Lea Wood with the Ernest Cook Trust to look at the autumn colours and make dens. Some children were lucky enough to spot a deer and a hare before they disappeared into the woodland.

We also entered our first sporting event of the year, the Team Cross-Country event at Kingshill where twelve schools competed. Our Year 4, 5 and 6 pupils competed with enthusiasm and determination. All teams did really well especially the Year 4 boys' team.

Our Open Morning for prospective parents with children who will start school in September 2018 is on Friday 10th from 9 – 10.30 am. Please ring the school, 01285 750318, if you wish to come.

To stay up to date with the latest news from our school, please look at our website, www.hatherop.gloucs.sch.uk.

QUENINGTON FIREWORKS

Quenington Bulldogs will once again be holding a spectacular Fireworks Night in aid of local causes on Sunday 5th in Godwins Field opposite the village green. Gates open at 6.15 pm, Bonfire lit at 6.45 pm, fireworks after the Archers! Admission and/or exit is by donation; please give as generously as possible. Andrew Butler hot dogs and home-made soup will be sold from the food tent, cash only please.

Please note if coming by car that you should come early and park on the Village Green as efficiently as possible, not just park on the edges. Once the green is full, there is stubble field overflow parking, so please obey stewards directions. DO NOT double park along roads; you will prevent cars arriving and in particular obstruct Emergency Services vehicle routes.

We hope you have an enjoyable evening! No sparklers please, and please observe instructions from stewards at all times.

COLN CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

All members of Coln St Aldwyns congregation are warmly invited to come to the Vicarage for coffee after the (shortened) morning service on Sunday 5th for half an hour's planning of our church's life over the coming months.

WILLIAMSTRIP CRICKET CLUB

The season drew to a close in dramatic fashion with the Home game against Ashton Keynes CC. To the victor go the spoils, the league title and also promotion, to the loser third place and another season in Division 2. Despite the best efforts of the bowling attack (Fred Bayliss 25-1, 8 overs and Steve Reeves 37-2, 8 overs) Ashton Keynes CC set a big total of 236-5 from their 40 overs. Williamstrip CC were chasing the total nicely, with notable scores from Dave Ryland (48) and Steve Reeves (81), before a flurry of wickets put a halt on progress. By the close Williamstrip CC had sadly fallen short of the total by 14 runs (222-9) and the win belonged to Ashton Keynes CC.

Overall it has been a great season and we were unlucky to just miss out on the promotion places. Special mention should go to Steve Reeves who combined not only captaining the side but also winning the league's "Batsmen of the Year" award. Steve and John Reeves also did a brilliant job of making sure we had an excellent wicket to play on each game and special thanks should be given in recognition of their dedication.

With the core of the team all coming from within the CHEQS villages we are a rarity and very lucky to be so well supported and that makes for a good atmosphere both in the dressing room and at the Keeper's Arms after the game. With the club's Family Day being such a success and seeing lots of new faces it is something we hope to repeat in the coming years, with possibly some 6-a-side games or Rounders to try and get you all playing! Thanks again to everyone for all their support and good wishes throughout this season.

QUENINGTON SOCIETY TALK

The Photographs of Horace W. Nicholls. Earlier this year David Mallinson presented a slide-show of photographs by his grandfather Horace W Nicholls, who is ranked amongst the most important of early English photographers. Such was the response, we are offering a second chance to see these remarkable images.

We see his first assignments in Chile in 1887, turn-of-the-century South Africa and the Boer War, in England the great Edwardian society and sporting occasions and his unique coverage of WW1 on the home front. The pictures are selected from the collections of the Royal Photographic Society at the V&A, the Imperial War Museum and the Horace Nicholls estate.

Quenington Village Hall. Friday 17th 7.00 pm for 7.30 pm start. Entrance £3. Refreshments

!! A HUGE THANK YOU !!

The Biggest Coffee Morning in the world event, Macmillan Cancer Support, was held at Quenington on Saturday. We raised £530, absolutely fantastic. This could not have been achieved without the many donations of cake, raffle prizes, the massive amount of help we received from friends and of course, you coming on the day and giving. Bunny and Jan thank you all and hope to see you next year!

New Speed Indicator Device: A second 'smily SID' device has been bought for use in Quenington and Honeycombe Leaze. It is hoped that this will encourage drivers to slow down when entering the village and has been part-funded by a grant from the Police Commissioner's Fund.

COTSWOLD WAY CENTURY RACE

Over the weekend of 23/24 September, Coln St Aldwyns' Rob Forbes shattered the record for running the Cotswold Way. Often seen out pushing a buggy while pounding the streets of CHEQS, all those miles of preparation certainly paid off as he finished the grueling 102-mile footpath in an astonishing 17hrs 34mins. Setting off from Chipping Campden at 12 noon, Rob started at a blistering pace and was reaching the race checkpoints, dotted along the route, before volunteers had even arrived to open them. On reaching Bath, Rob was accompanied for the last few miles by his wife Helen and arrived at Bath Abbey still in darkness with the rest of the 130-strong field many hours behind.

With Richard Hurdle coming 9th and James White 14th, both achieving a much coveted sub-24hr time, it was a great performance by our small collection of villagers over our local National Trail.

COLN CINEMA

invites you to a showing “Their Finest” –Vicarage Cottage Barn, Friday 3rd at 7.30 pm. (doors open 7.00 pm.)

The year is 1940, London. With the nation bowed down by war, the British ministry turns to propaganda films to boost morale at home. Realising their films could use “a woman’s touch”, the ministry hires Catrin Cole (Gemma Arterton) as a scriptwriter in charge of writing the female dialogue. Although her artist husband looks down on her job, Catrin’s natural flair quickly gets her noticed by cynical, witty lead scriptwriter Buckley (Sam Claflin). Catrin and Buckley set out to make an epic feature film based on the Dunkirk rescue starring the gloriously vain, former matinee idol Ambrose Hilliard (Bill Nighy). As bombs are dropping all around them, Catrin, Buckley and their colourful cast and crew work furiously. Cert 12A 117 mins.

The League of Friends of Fairford Hospital News and Information

Members of the League have voted to change their name and upgrade their charitable status to reflect their work better.

The Friends, who are to become known as the Friends of Fairford & Lechlade Communities, provide health and social care within Fairford, Lechlade and the surrounding villages. This includes a Home Nursing Team providing end-of-life care, patients' transport and a range of other services and funding that supports the local community. Members consider that the present name does not reflect accurately the widespread work that they do.

“There is still a perception by a large number of people that our services are mainly associated with supporting Fairford Hospital,” said League Chairman Graham Hewitt. “This does not help promote the work that is actually being done. Ninety-five percent of our work is focused on the community and only five percent within Fairford Hospital, which is now an Outpatients Clinic.

“A name change will reflect better the work we do, will reduce confusion and should further strengthen the support we have in the community” said Graham. The League will continue to strongly support Fairford Hospital, as it is an extremely valuable facility. They aim to introduce the name change next year.

At the same time as changing its name the League will change its charitable status. At present it is an Unincorporated Organisation. With the responsibilities that the League has the Charity Commission recommend operating as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, providing a better platform for delivering the services.

Further information from Graham Hewitt 01285 851022; graham.hewitt@yahoo.co.uk

Our communities raised a magnificent total of £20,379, including Gift Aid, during this year's House-to-House event. Thank you to all our volunteer co-ordinators, collectors and supporters.

DIARY DATE: CHRISTMAS BAZAAR Saturday 18 November at Fairford Community Centre 10.00am - 12.00 noon. Christmas cards, raffle tickets, cake sales, books, bottle and gift stalls. Refreshments will be available. (Raffle tickets can also be bought at our Charity Shop in Lechlade with a first prize of £100 cash and many more prizes from local businesses. League of Friends Christmas Cards are also available to purchase from the shop in Lechlade.)

COLN COMMUNITY STORES – A PLEA AND A PARTY

Friends, Cheqers, Countrymen, lend me your ears! I come not to bury the Coln Community Stores but to praise them (“they were all of them fond of quotations”). The Stores are a tremendous asset, not only to the villagers to whom this is addressed, but to many who come from much further afield on bicycles or on foot as well, as the lunch-seekers working locally. Not only can you buy your paper, your magazines, your bread, your vegetables, your cold meats, even fresh fish once a fortnight, but you can indulge in an array of sweets, crisps, nuts and ice creams to satisfy any child coming out of school (and if you disapprove of that, let me say that there are a large number who don’t) not to mention alcoholic refreshment for the last-minute party-goer. For the discriminating there are about seventeen different flavours of water to tempt you. I haven’t even mentioned the Post Office: I can attest to the weight of sacks carried out to the postman’s van. The Café is hugely popular: mother’s meetings; committee meetings; the Tour de France regularly calls.

While interment is not imminent the future of the Stores hangs in a delicate balance. It is a non-profit-making organisation whose income is calculated to keep the enterprise afloat. The only paid staff are the Manager (on Maternity leave) and three assistant managers (one currently off sick) who are all obliged to work longer hours than they are paid for. What makes it possible is the contribution of volunteers. These characters – you may have spotted one or two – regularly or intermittently turn up to serve at the counter, help in the café, prepare food for the café – the profits from which are crucial to the whole operation’s viability – look after the garden, even run the Post Office. Without them the shop would close. The trouble is: there are not enough of them.

So, please, would you think about offering to help? You don’t have to make a regular commitment or go on a rota; you can choose to work for as long or as briefly as you like (I sometimes go in to buy something and spend twenty minutes behind the till when I can see things are busy.) I understand someone recently said “Oh I can do invoices”: perfect. None of it is difficult (if you can’t understand the till you can always hit it or burst into tears; no one will mind) and it is fun, and it will keep the Stores alive.

Actually, don’t just think about it; decide to give it a go! To this end, anyone who would like to learn more, come to our Volunteers’ Party at 7.00 pm on Tuesday 21st (in Nigel Hugh-Smith’s barn) and hear from those of us who do volunteer what it’s like and maybe, just maybe, join us. If there are enough people we might have a sandwich-making competition, a stamp-licking relay or even a stocking-the-milk-fridge 100-yard dash. Whatever: it will be bonhomie – and might keep the Coln Community Stores open.
